Extract paragraph 30 of a Military Despatch from the Most Hon'ble the Secretary of State for India, No. 120, dated the 21st November 1913. (Received the 7th December 1913).

30. Having considered in Council your Army Department Despatch No. 94, dated 24th July 1913, I approve the substitution of the following clause for the last sentence of paragraph 6 of the Study Leave Rules :—

M-10,818.

"The total period of absence from duty in India in the case of officers under the Leave Rules of 1886 for the Indian Army or under the Civil Leave Rules will be strictly limited to two years, subject to the following provisos :—

"(a) In the case of officers under the Leave Rules of 1886 for the Indian Army, no leave (including study leave combined with other leave) in excess of one year may be granted in the first instance, and

"(b) In the case of officers under the Civil Leave Rules, the leave granted may be extended up to a maximum of three years on medical certificate."

The rule proposed by Your Excellency's Government has been amended so as to safeguard the right of an officer under Civil Leave Rules to a third year of leave on medical certificate under Article 312 (a) of the Civil Service Regulations.
